Inaugural Address to The People

What every nation needs is for a truly honorable President or Prime Minister to hold “Sacred Office” and then lead his or her respective nation in a way never seen before in history. The time for having weak and/or corrupt leaders must come to an end. We need to have strong and noble leaders who can wisely lead every nation in the right direction. We need those who seek to put the power back into the hands of The People themselves. The world desperately needs worthy leaders who will address the masses with sincere humility, eloquence, and even boldness. Perhaps, this is an example of what such a leader might say:

My beloved brothers and sisters, it is with joy and gratitude that I stand before you today as your new President. I have not prepared a speech for this special ceremony, nor did I have any speech-writers do it for me. I do not want anyone telling me what I should say, because nobody could truly know what I have within my heart to share with all of you. I also did not want to write a carefully-worded speech that I would then simply read from a teleprompter.

I know that many others do such a thing; some even do so in order to create the illusion that they are charismatic and inspiring. However, I believe that it hinders the fire of the spirit that flows from me to you while I am speaking. Otherwise, it would be impersonal, superficial, and insincere. Therefore, I will humbly do today what I have always done in the past; I will simply speak to you directly from my heart with nothing but love and honesty. I sincerely hope that is acceptable to you.

I would like to begin by saying that this Office of President is truly sacred. It is the Office, and not merely the man or woman who serves in that Office, that is to be respected. Therefore, I promise before ALL to wear this magnificent Mantle with honor and integrity for however long I am blessed to have it. If at any time I bring dishonor to this Sacred Office or this Hallowed Nation, I will immediately resign so that someone worthier than me may take my place.

My beloved friends, I love this nation and all of humanity more than my life itself. It is my solemn vow to do all that I can with the powers bestowed upon me to not only promote and defend freedom in every nation around the world but to help this very nation rise to incredible heights of spiritual and technological achievement never before witnessed in recorded history. I am extremely grateful for the privilege and opportunity of being here today, and I have no words to fully express the happiness and joy that I feel within me now. It is not due to any vain, selfish, or prideful reasons of me becoming the duly elected leader of this glorious nation. Instead, my sincere elation is for you, The People...the Sons and Daughters of Freedom!

There have been many Presidents before me; God willing, there will also be many more after me. However, I can say with my whole heart and soul that I will strive daily to BE the best President that I can possibly BE for you. My beloved friends, I am truly one of you. I have lived among you my entire life, and I know the pain and suffering that you all experience on a daily basis. I have also struggled to maintain my individuality and be free of ignorance while attending schools that were programming us to do just the opposite.

I have also seen my hard-earned money end up in the hands of elitists, do-nothing politicians, and those who do not deserve to have it. I have tried to live a healthy and natural life while so much in society is tempting all of us to live unhealthily and unnaturally. I have also experienced the tyranny of corrupt politicians and devious global elitists who continually seek to maintain their power, control, and wealth. Like you, I have had many sleepless nights worrying about how I would find the way to support my family and help them to live better lives.

I, too, have wondered when we would finally have a President who genuinely cared about The People and did not just tell us what we wanted to hear in order to be elected or re-elected. Like you, I have had enough of the lying, manipulating, and betraying “wolves in sheep’s clothing” who will say and do anything in order to attain and then retain positions of power. I have also had enough of such individuals getting into Office and then spending their time serving the elitists and special interest groups instead of The People...the ones who they are truly meant to be serving. I have had enough of the government getting larger instead of smaller and our rights getting trampled on instead of being protected. I, too, have experienced periods of great frustration, irritation, despair, and hopelessness.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I have always hoped and prayed for a truly worthy man or woman to be elected to this Sacred Office. However, it simply led to nothing but disappointment. All of the promises made that were never fulfilled, all of the superficial excitement and false charisma, and all of the talk of representing The People...they were all just empty words. I am not the one who has deceived you over the decades, but I sincerely want to apologize on behalf of the Office of President. I pray that you will find forgiveness within your hearts and not come to the sad belief that all politicians are selfish, greedy, deceitful, and corrupt. I sincerely hope that you will remember that it is not the Office that is corrupt; it is only certain individuals who have held that Office and were corrupt beforehand or had been corrupted afterward by its power.

I did not, do not, and will not ever claim to be perfect. I will also never claim, as many narcissists, to be the “savior” of this blessed nation. However, what I will declare to you all this day is that I will spend my precious years in Office working to help you to save yourselves and each other. The time for Big Government has now come to an end! It is time for you, The People, to take back the power that is rightfully yours! My beloved friends, that is indeed your Divine Right! You have the true power of this nation...not the politicians or the elitists who have been arrogantly parading around as if they were the rightful rulers of this wonderful nation.

They have tried very hard to hide this Truth from The People for centuries; sadly, many of you believed their lies in the past. I say for all to hear... enough is enough! Thus far and no farther! Their day is done! An Era of Excellence is about to begin. It will not come through one person alone, because I am not your savior. This Big Government is also not your savior. Instead, this splendid Era of Excellence will come through the balanced power, wisdom, and love of The People themselves. With God’s guidance and wisdom, you are all your own saviors!

For too long now, you have been oppressed and forced into various forms of slavery, even if you did not realize it at the time. Your wealth has been plundered; your towns have been pillaged; you have received deplorable education; you are being given biased and worthless news in the media; and you have almost no representation in the government that is meant to be representing you. No, ladies and gentlemen, today is not MY victory; it is absolutely YOUR victory! The reason is because I swear before God Himself that I will strive every single day to demonstrate that I AM truly “Of The People, By The People, For The People” and not “Of The Elite, By The Elite, For The Elite”!

My rest will only be that of the rest between heartbeats, and I will give every ounce of energy that I have within me in overturning the tables of the money changers and making this ground hallowed once again. I will labor to illumine you, inspire you, and empower you all to improve your own lives, BE who you truly are, share your unique gifts with the world, and create a New Nation that all may come to admire and emulate.

This is not about ME, my friends; this is about YOU. This is about US! “We The People” will save this blessed nation! We are lovers of liberty, and we will eliminate the negative influences of Socialism and perverted Capitalism once and for all. We will raise our children the way they were meant to be raised for their natural development. We will finally provide our children with a True Education that will help them to become incredible leaders one day.

We will remove all the corrupt politicians and replace those serpents and vipers with dignified men and women who are worthy to represent us. We will prevent illegal drugs, alcohol, nicotine, and every other harmful substance from killing our citizens. We will challenge Big Pharma that profits from pain and illness, influences medical schools and doctors, attacks alternative healers, and seeks to either buy or limit our access to natural remedies. We will take control over our own money and eliminate all of the selfish and greedy banking institutions. We will no longer support war but will support peace instead. We will no longer live in fantasyland, be distracted by empty entertainment, or remain ignorant of what is taking place around us and around the world.

Instead, we will strive each day to improve our own lives and those of others. We will know our rights so that no government will ever again be able to trample on them. We will always remember that our rights come from God and not the government! We will remain eternally vigilant so that the “few” can never again control the “many” for their own selfish gains. We will also never allow our National Sovereignty to be disregarded, especially by other nations or corrupt international organizations that desire a World Government with absolute power.

My beloved friends, it will not be an easy task of turning this blessed nation around. Every aspect of society must be transformed, and it will take time, a great deal of hard work, and patience. However, I am confident that together we will surely succeed! Together, there is nothing that cannot be achieved! Our great strength of unity will help us to not only envision a bright future for this nation but will help us to establish a clear path toward that dream and make it a reality.

I am telling you now, dear ones, that there will be some who will seek to prevent us from having this glorious victory. They have so much power, control, and wealth to lose if we succeed in creating the kind of nation that we sincerely hope to have. Therefore, I warn you all to be on guard, for they will seek to distract you, hinder you, discourage you, ruin your reputations, end your careers, destroy your personal lives, and even attack your family and friends.

I am neither foolish nor naïve; thus, I am also fully aware that some will even seek to destroy me through character assassination and, perhaps, even physical assassination. This is not paranoia; this is the truth, because that is exactly how such immoral individuals operate. They have no honor. However, we must not be deterred in our mission to create an incredible nation. We must always remain steadfast and fearlessly deal with all the enemies both within and without that will try to get in our way.

I truly love every one of you. I would give my life itself to defend your lives and your God-given right to BE the individuals that you are. I am eager to harmoniously work with you all to build a nation unlike anything we have ever seen before! I am not afraid! I will not be intimidated! I will not be bribed or blackmailed! I will not be silenced! I will never give up and never retreat! Nothing can stop me from working with all of you in this noble cause!

I am right here, and I am not going anywhere! Let them come, my brave friends, for we cannot be defeated when we work together. You have my word that I will do my part to bring down their “house of cards”. I will work to release the control that the serpents have over this nation. I will expose their lies and dirty secrets! I will play my role to the best of my ability, and my only motivation is to help you to be awakened, to be free, and to live better lives.

No stone will remain unturned, and no flaw will pass unexamined. I intend on putting this entire government through the “refiner’s fire” so that only the purest institution will endure. Over the years, the “servant” has become the “Master”. However, I will reverse these roles and make certain that they become what they were originally meant to be!

I will flush out the liars, betrayers, deceivers, and manipulators who are pulling the strings of this government from “the shadows”, scheming behind closed doors, stealing your money, and continuing to keep you in “chains” while they live their lives in luxury using your hard-earned money to do it! This government will be shaken upside-down and inside-out so that once again there will be individuals who put God above everything else, who sincerely desire to serve The People, and who seek to create a true God-Government on Earth...a Government where nobody is above the law, and everyone realizes that there is a Higher Authority over Man. I will then decrease this government’s size in a way not seen since the founding of this blessed nation! The power will indeed be put back into your hands!

I promise that plots of land across this great nation will be freely given to all of those who are interested in establishing family homesteads. Now is the time for people to become more independent and self-sufficient. It is time to become more responsible for our own lives and no longer be so dependent on the government to take care of us. I do not want our citizens being influenced by a “Police State” or by a “Nanny State” in this nation! Both are said to be of benefit to The People, when defended by those who refer to such totalitarian systems using deceptively “nicer” words. However, they are both horrible and do nothing but give more money, power, and control to The Elitists and their “puppets”.

The time for Big Oil controlling governments and car companies, making money by polluting the Earth, and trying to prevent alternative ideas from being used must be over! The time for Big Business, lack of competition, government-supported “virtual monopolies”, and the manipulation of the economy must be over! It is time for true competition, more choice, more entrepreneurs, more small businesses, more ethical practices, higher quality products and services, more effort to help communities, and a real free market economy to flourish!

It is time as well for the Age of Materialism, Meaningless Entertainment, and the Pleasure Cult to fade away so that an Age of Spirituality, Self-Improvement, and Enlightenment may take its place. The time has now come for the “Old World” to be replaced by the “New World”. This will certainly be a wonderful journey! Yet, I cannot do it alone...and I cannot do it for you. I can seek to inspire you, and I can also expose the “tares among the wheat”. It is up to you to make the decision, using your own free will, to separate yourselves from the degradation of society and to rise higher.

My beloved brothers and sisters, I will never force anything upon you. I AM your elected leader, but I want you to have a voice in what takes place within this nation. A nation full of man-made laws is very limiting and suffocating to the Spirit within us. Such a system is only necessary if The People do not have a higher level of awareness or self-discipline to govern themselves wisely. In order for us to begin making changes to how this nation operates, we all must continue working to surrender our human egos and the many perversions that they contain, such as ignorance, pride, lust, greed, selfishness, jealousy, envy, fear, and hatred. We all must strive to better ourselves and embody noble qualities, such as love, mercy, compassion, forgiveness, peace, joy, purity, harmony, honor, integrity, and wisdom.

The governments of the world are a reflection of the awareness of the citizens within every nation. The People in this blessed nation have collectively increased the level of their awareness. As a result, your rightful demand for better leadership from the President and Representatives will definitely be met. I AM here, because you firmly believe that I can do just that. I give you my word that I will strive to BE the kind of leader you truly hoped that I would BE.

You will never have to regret voting for me, because I AM WHAT I AM. I have never shown you anything but the Real Me from the very beginning. I have never tried to hide anything from you, cover up my past, or manipulate the media to only show you the good things about myself and not any flaws.

It is very important for you to know that I have never lied to you. I have never deceived you through clever “double-talk”, avoiding difficult discussions, misdirecting questions by talking about other things, having pre-approved questions for Q&A sessions, calling on certain journalists who I knew would ask easy questions, distracting the public by constantly attacking my opponents, filling you with false hope while only intending to serve the elitists and those who donated large sums of money to my campaign, promising to lower taxes while intending to actually raise them...and yet fooling you through carefully-worded speeches about having to spend your money on supposedly “effective” programs, or convincing you that only “I” or “the government” can save you from the challenging circumstances that we have in this nation right now.

My beloved friends, I AM WHO I AM. There will be no surprises now that I have been elected as your President. Giving one’s word is a Sacred Vow to me, and I do believe that lying should actually be regarded as a criminal offense. There is no honor in lying, deceiving, betraying, manipulating, or saying one thing and then doing another. I made promises to you all, and I AM a man of my word. Therefore, I will keep my promises!

You will soon have more power over your own lives than any of you have ever experienced before. I gave you that promise, and I will keep it! However, in order to maintain this new way of life, we will all need to continue working very hard to transcend our current states of consciousness. We must strive daily to increase our understanding of ourselves, others, and All of Life around us and beyond. Our thoughts, feelings, words, and deeds must not harm ourselves, others, or the planet.

It will not be easy, of course, because that level of mastery requires a great deal of self-control and self-discipline.

When there is more freedom, there must also be more responsibility. We have waited far too long for this opportunity to change our own lives and this nation, so let us make the most of it. BE fearless; BE loving; BE wise; BE faithful; and use your priceless time and energy to create better lives for yourselves and for others. We must not become so comfortable in our lives that it makes us slothful and incapable of working toward greater things.

Please, my friends, do not waste your valuable time on the useless activities that society constantly tempts you all with. Such distractions will gradually disappear when you simply focus your attention on higher pursuits. It is vital that we work to surrender the destructive momentums of idolatry, sensuality, and materialism. They serve absolutely no purpose in creating a glorious world for ALL.

Today is truly a New Day! It is a great victory for you, because this blessed nation is now going to be placed back into your hands. I will do whatever I possibly can to help you in helping yourselves and each other. I will not be a ruthless dictator or a soft tyrant. Instead, love and wisdom will be the pillars by which I am supported as I take my stand to lead you into the Sunrise of this New Day.

I will maintain a grand vision for this amazing nation, and I will work to help all of you contribute your uniqueness in taking it to incredible heights. It will be very hard work, because you will be the ones doing most of it. I can assure you that there will be no “saviors” in my administration! I want you to be the saviors of yourselves! Let us not complain about the hard work that lies ahead, for you are about to experience a freedom that mankind has never seen in recorded history. That is cause for rejoicing!

Thus, the hard work should be accepted with immense joy. What could possibly be more exciting than to be alive...to have free will...and to now have a government that is finally giving you the freedom and the power that you rightfully deserve in order to use all of your thoughts, feelings, words, and deeds to create beautiful lives for yourselves and others? This is going to be a culture that will declare for all to hear, “I AM Awake...and I AM Free!”

Together, we can unquestionably use this rare opportunity to build a nation founded upon courage, wisdom, love, purity, harmony, truth, peace, justice, freedom, and joy. We are all unique individuals, but we are also One as a human race! When one person succeeds...we ALL succeed! There is truly nothing that cannot be accomplished when we work together in unity to selflessly serve each other and help all of humanity to rise higher in every way.

I AM also the Commander-in-Chief. I promise that, under my watch, our brave troops will not fight in unnecessary wars. They will not be sent to die for opium, oil, or to take control of other nations. I will not lie to you all about what action our military is taking. I will not send our brave men and women to be maimed or killed so that elitists can make billions of dollars in “blood money”. Our valiant troops will remain right here to defend the borders of this great nation from those who may seek to destroy our safe haven and way of life. They will guard this hallowed ground, which guarantees that citizens have certain inalienable rights and the freedom and opportunity to create better lives for themselves.

I AM a Guardian of the Flame of Freedom! Therefore, I will use our brave troops as “defenders of freedom”, if it is necessary, to also support other nations (or groups of people) that may not have the ability to protect their God-given rights and cannot defend themselves against tyrants or elitists seeking to take away their freedom. War will always be our last option, and using peaceful strategies to resolve situations will always be our first.

Having said that, I truly hope that all nations around the world will understand me very clearly: “We will never give up one square inch of free land anywhere upon this Sacred Planet without a fight! That is my promise...and I keep my promises!”

My fellow patriots and freedom-lovers, there is no victory for mankind if people choose to remain passive and willingly accept a “false peace”, for the freedom-haters would bring nothing but destruction and death to the masses. As a result, we would never be able to build a magnificent civilization. If we did give up “just a little”, they would keep taking more and more until there was nothing left. Allowing that to happen is not an option! Without anger or hatred, we have a right to defend the Freedom of Man! And with God as our Witness...WE WILL!

My Friends of Light, I could stand here before you and speak until I have no voice left, because my heart is overflowing with love, joy, and gratitude. However, enough has already been said here today. Words are good...but actions are better. Therefore, let us all get to work rebuilding this blessed nation, under God, in a manner that supports the spiritual, mental, emotional, and physical well-being of every soul living here and all of our brothers and sisters living within other nations. Let us be remembered by future generations...not as men and women who merely spoke of doing great things...but instead as courageous individuals who labored to BE who they truly were inside and then took action to make the changes that they wished to see in the world.

Once again, I humbly ask you all to accept my sincere appreciation for your love, support, and the belief that I am worthy of serving you. It is my life’s honor to now BE your President, and I give thanks to all of you and to The Creator for this priceless opportunity. I understand that it is not a right; it is a privilege. Therefore, I will do my very best to work for the Greater Good of ALL.

My beloved friends, I AM extremely grateful to be here today with all of you. Please know that I am not concerned about having statues and monuments dedicated to me when my time as President is over. I am not concerned about fame or fortune either. I do not have any desire for power or control. And I do not care what the corrupt media or my enemies say about me, for I know that my intentions are pure.

However, if I am going to be remembered for anything when I am no longer occupying this Office, and even long after my death, I hope that it will be for the only wish that I have as your President. Yes, my friends, I have just one wish...but it will change EVERYTHING! So, if I am to be remembered, I pray that it will be as...

“The President who finally put the power back into the hands of The People, where it rightfully belongs.”

Today is a glorious day! However, please do not celebrate this occasion because of me. Instead, celebrate this special day because God has lovingly smiled upon this Great Nation, and together we will become a Beacon of Light, Hope, and Freedom for the entire world! To Man be the Victory, and to God be the Glory!

I love you ALL with an eternal love, and I AM “A Servant of ALL”. May God bless you; may God bless this Sacred Nation; and may God bless all of our beloved brothers and sisters around the world.
